SIAMESE NAVY TO AID POLICE IN COMBATING TERRORISM

Yesterday at the Ministry of Defense, the captains of the ships Sichang and Pagan declared that the police had investigated the widespread rumor of a Communist incendiary plot in Chonburi and, finding it true, had strengthened their forces. Police forces of the Southern Police District of Bangkok under the command of Police Mayor Chat are cooperating with the provincial police.

The two navy captains said they had come to report to the Minister of Defense regarding the 200 new field-type radios purchased from the US, which the naval authorities in Chamburi wish to use in combating the terrorism threatened by the Communists. The police forces, they said, are not adequate to provide for the people's safety. The navy will go wherever trouble is feared and maintain order.
